Coleman eagerly trying for the PAT failed. The Lancers still desperately trying to break through with a score, were unable to do so. At the close of the second quarter, Appomattox had a total of 68 yards rushing.

After a delightful and exciting halftime exhibition performed by the Appomattox and Amherst County Bands it was time to return to the third period of play.

The Lancers first break through came when they scored on a flee-flicker from 30 yards out. The Lancers trying to obtain every point possible, passed for a 2 point conversion to trail the Raiders by a close margin of 5. The Raiders' defense led by Jamerson, forced the Lancers to pass which created an interception by Dyess who charged in from 35 yards to break the Lancers' back with a score of 18 to 8.

The Amherst Lancers still using an aerial attack turned the ball back over to the Raiders with James Robinson intercepting.

With 2:44 remaining to play, Dillard Reynolds following "Boo Boo" Trent doved for the goal line to create a safe margin of victory for the Appomattox Raiders.

After Reynolds scored the final touchdown for the Raiders, the board showed Appomattox 25, Lancers, 8.

The Appomattox Raiders with a 4-0 record are tied with Rustburg in the Seminole District.

This week the Appomattox Raiders travel to Altavista to where they will take on the Colonels. You'll want to travel along side the Raiders and cheer them on to what we hope will be another Seninole District win for the Raiders!

J-V.'s Downed By 1 Point

In Monday night's game between the Appomattox JV Raiders and the Amherst JV Lancers, the Raiders trailed the Lancers by 1 point.

Both teams playing with a strong defense held the score of 0-0 throughout the first quarter.

With having 14 points, the Raiders' Larry Kelso recovered a lancers fumble and returned for 46 yards to score for the Raiders. Mitchell with a wise decision, passed to Poole for the 2 point conversion. Halftime standings were Amherst 14, Appomattox 8.

In third period of play, Poole and Kelso moved the ball into good field position where Mitchell connected with Chris Johnson on a 26 yard touchdown pass. Mitchell reversing his stratedy kicked for a successful PAT.

Following the skilled blocks of the Raiders offense, Mitchell scored a 14 yard run. PAT failed. The score now showed Appomattox 21, Amherst 14.

With 2:10 left, Amherst returned a punt from 45 yards back to score. Amherst desperately needing the 2 point conversion, successfully doing so set the score Amherst 22, Appomattox 21.

The J.V.'s defensive standouts were Kelso and S.L. Ferguson. Stand-outs on offense were Kelso and Poole.

After talking with Dickerson following the game, his comments were, "Everyone hates to lose, but when we ask a team to play two games in four nights and we expect to perform well our kids did not quit. We were down early in the first half and fought back. Being young we got beat a few times on our corners and passes and runs. We know we have a lot of hard work ahead, but this week has taught us a great deal. The team will not quit and we will work even harder now! With a break here or there we could be 3-0 instead of 1-2. We will look forward not backwards. We have no excuses - we realize that football is football and that we must start making things happen!"

This week the J.V.'s will host Altavista. See you there.

RAIDERETTES POST VICTORY

In the Seminole District Volleyball conference the Raiderettes hosted the Staunton River Eaglettes on Sept. 30 to post a 15-1 and a 15-3 victory.

The Raiderettes, with a very strong defense refused to let the Eaglettes capture a victory.

Connie Murray while serving scored a total of 9 and Cindy Smith, another strong server, scored 7.

Mrs. Martin, coach of the Raiderettes, stated that all the players, first and second string, prove themselves no strangers on the floor.

Jan Stanley looked very skillful at the net with Cindy Harris and Sue Doss setting the ball up.

It looks like the Raiderettes are set for tops in Seminole District Volleyball.

The Raiderettes will travel to Amherst, Oct. 7. The games will start at 4:30 p.m.

Be there and give these girls your support.

Raiderettes Pluck Hens

In Thursday's Volleyball game between the Gretna Hens and the Raiderettes, the Raiderettes bagged a close victory of 15-12 and 15-13.

Connie Murry scored a total of 10 points in both games while Cindy Smith and Jan Stanley scored 7 out of the two games.

It was a very strong defense and comeback when the Raiderettes, trailing the Hens with 11-4, broke through with 13-12. The Hens, having a one point lead, lost a serve which resulted in Cindy Smith scoring the last three points for victory.

Mrs. Martin was very pleased with the total performance of the team.
